The births reported were 10 males and As compared with the report for the ame period of last year, the morbidity of the city shows an improvement even more favorable than the reduction of the number of deaths. Three www cases of scarlet fever were reported as compared with four in the preceding week and 26 in the same week of 1901, and having been released as cured left 11 cases in detention in 10 premises as against 84 for the corresponding week lust year. The new cases of diph theria decreased from 10 last week to one for the week just closed, and register a like decrease compared with th same period of last mar. Four cases were discharged as cured and one cas having died, left seven eases in quar-antine as against 14 for the same week last year. The cases of smallpox in quarantine were doubled by the development and importation of 12 new cases, six of which were in one home and three being non-residents coming here infected by exposure at other points, namely, Mercur, Park City and Salmon City, Ida, The total number now quarantined is 24. Of the other diseases required to be reported, there were three of typhoid fever, six of measles and two of chickenpox. The diseases now in the city is 48; for the

IN HONOR OF THE PROPHET'S BIRTH

Commemorative Services Held in The Tabernacle on Sunday.

REVIEW HIS LIFE'S LABORS

Elders George A. Smith and Charles W. Penrose Deliver Highly Interesting Address; s.

Services commemorative of the birth of the Prophet Joseph Smith were he d in the Tabernacle yesterday afternood, President Angus M. Cannon, presiding, There was a large attendance and the speakers were Elders George A. Smith and Charles W. Penrose. Preside its Joseph F. Smith, John R. Winder and Anthon H. Lund were interested listen-

The choir and congregation sang:

Praise to the man who communed with Jehovah, Jesus anointed that Prophet and

Prayer was offered by President An

The choir sang the anthem: The Restoration of the Gospel.

Elder George A. Smith was the first speaker. He opened by remarking that we had met to worship the Lerd, and ncidentally to commemorate the a proaching 97th anniversary of the birth of the Prophet Joseph Smith. He then took up the history of the Prophet, aying that he was born at Sharon Windsor county, Vermont, Dec. 23, 1895, and was the son of Joseph and Lucy Smith, who lived in that section at that

The speaker then related the removal of the Smith family to Palmyra, New York, then to Manchester in the same state, in which locality there was great nterest manifested in religious revi-He pointed out the tendency of the Smith family religiously, and the importunities of religious teachers to Joseph, through which he had been led to read the Holy Scriptures, which in turn, had led him to ask God for the wisdom so much desired. Elder Smith pictured vividly the Prophet Joseph's first vision, relating the message borne to him by God the Father and His Son esus Christ. He told how his friend had turned against him when he made known what he had seen and heard, following this with a description of his remarkable vision when the angel Maroni appeared to him three timee on the same night and unfolded the pur-poses of God through his humble instrumentality, if faithful. The speak-er related the coming forth of the metailic plates and the publication of the Book of Mormon, this being succeeded by the organization of the Church April 1830, at Fayette, Seneca county, New

Elder Smith continued his interesting narrative by referring further to the boy Prophet. Though opposed and maligned by those who should have been his friends, the work he inaugurated prospered in the midst of diffi-culties and before his assassination which occurred June 27, 1844, the Church had been well established and the opening of the dispensation of the fullness of times had been accom-He lived true to the trust re posed in him. He died a martyr to the cause of truth, sealing his testimony with his precious blood.

The speaker then referred to the was who shattered the heresy of a introduced in lieu thereof the idea of a hell of conscience. He also made intervening have revolutionized relig ous thought and brought about a serious revision of religious creeds, Concluding Elder Smith urged faith fulness on the part of the young peo

Zion. He admonished them to cherish the truths of heaven and to emulate by their acts the example set them by those who had made such sac rifices for the Gospel. Elder Charles W. Penrose endorsed the remarks that had been made and expressed his pleasure that they had been so attentively listened to by the congregation. The speaker said pineteenth century was looked upon as the greatest of all the ages, and it cer taintly was when viewed from standpoint of the restoration of Gospel of Jesus Christ, and one of the greatest of the notables born in that century was the Prophet Joseph Smith Elder Penrose then reviewed the teaching of the Prophet, paying specia attention to the doctrine of Delty h dvanced, and comparing it with the teachings of the world as to the personality of the Godhead. Another truth misunderstood by the world general was the eventual salvation of the whol human race and the degrees of glory provided by the Father for all classes of spirits, in explanation of the Savior's remark, "In My Father's house there ar many mansions." The principles of the Gospel were set forth and the Prophet Joseph that according to our that the punishment of the wicked would be in proportion to their guilt in the eternities to come.

Elder Penrose bore a fervent testi mony of the Gospel. He knew that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God and could say that whenever he had be this testimony as an Elder in the Church during a period of nearly 5 years, his whole being thrilled with th Spirit of the Lord-a witness unto all believers of the divinity of the work they had given adherence to. speaker paid a glowing tribute to the Prophet and Patriarch who lived to gether, worshipped together and died together, and have now gone to meet a giorious reward.

The hmyn "The Seer." was beautifuly rendered by Charles Kent, afte bich the choir and congregation sang We thank Thee, O God, for a Prop and benediction was pronounced President Joseph E. Smith.

A Timely suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife re-plenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is con-tracted and before it has become set tled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful sub-stance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by all druggists.
